

1969

Faces in the news

Anonymous

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/dl_tr

Part of the Accounting Commons, and the Taxation Commons

Recommended Citation

Tempo, Vol. 15, no. 4 (1969, winter), p. 36-37

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Deloitte Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Touche Ross Publications by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

Managing Partner Robert Beyer is now involved with the work of the President's Advisory Council for Minority Business Enterprises. Mr. Beyer is one of 63 business and professional leaders who will advise the President on ways to develop public and private support of minority business enterprises.

W. Putnam Livingston, retired Vice President of Bankers Trust, is now an outside consultant in banking services to Touche Ross. Here Mr. Livingston (left) confers with Bruce Rider, Director of Automation Training for the American Bankers Association, and William D. Power, coordinator of the Touche Ross Management Services Commercial Industries Program.

Kenneth Reames, partner in Touche Ross' Detroit office, is a member of the White House Task Force on Business Taxation. The 13-member task force is assisting the Treasury Department in its preparation of overall tax reform proposals.

At the blackboard Robert M. Trueblood, Chairman of the Touche Ross Policy Group and National Director of Accounting, conducts one in a two-week series of lectures at Stanford University as a participant in Stanford's Executive in Residence program last fall. Mr. Trueblood also took part in faculty seminars and a special colloquy among students and faculty of Stanford and Berkeley.

Jack Plaxe (center) receives a check from New York office Partner in Charge David V. Burchfield for placing first in the New York State CPA examination in May. Richard Patterson, New York's Director of Audit Operations, adds his congratulations.

